Write what Peter does every day. In order to do so, follow these instructions:

1. Plan your piece of writing.
2. Divide it into three paragraphs: Make sure that you use CONNECTORS in the different paragraphs to link your ideas.

Connectors for SEQUENCING

At first,
First of all,
Secondly,
Then,
Next,
After that,
Afterwards,
.....later, (some minutes later)
Just then
Suddenly,
Eventually,
Finally,
In the end,
Before... (+ V-ing)
After... (+ V-ing)

- Paragraph 1 - Introduction
(say who Peter is, where he lives, his profession, who he lives with.... and say that you will speak about his daily routine)
- Paragraph 2 - Development
(describe his daily routine)
- Paragraph 3 - Conclusion
(speak about what he does at the end of the day. You may also say if he is happy with his routine or if he does something different at weekends, etc)

3. Check your piece of writing and MAKE SURE:

- you haven't forgotten any idea.
- you have written three paragraphs.
- your spelling is correct.
- the verb tenses are correct.
- you have used third person singular and you haven't forgotten "s".
- you have used a variety of connectors. You haven't repeated the same ones all the time.
- your writing makes sense.
- you have used capital letters with the days of the week and the months.
